

Sharon Grandy – Troop 283

Outstanding Boy Scout Committee Member

Navigating the murky waters from Star to Eagle can be overwhelming; that is why the Scout often has an Eagle Coach. However, even Coaches sometimes need a guide—someone to make sure they are properly instructing their Scouts and that all the i's are dotted and t's crossed. For the past two years, this Scouter has been that go-to person. After she stepped down as Troop Committee Chair, she enthusiastically became an Eagle Coach Coordinator, and promptly set off to create the standard by which all future Eagle Coaches will be judged. She helped to simplify the Eagle Scout paperwork nightmare while maintaining all required forms and signatures. She created a checklist-style Guidebook for all Coaches and Scouts to follow, ensuring nothing is missed. She tirelessly recruits new coaches when needed and maintains relationships with key adults in the Troop when needed for Eagle Boards of Review. Twenty Scouts have attained Scouting's highest honor while she has held the Eagle Scout Coordinator position.

We are proud to name Sharon Grandy of Troop 283 a deserving Outstanding Boy Scout Committee Member.
