

EXPRESS TRAINING

Scoutmaster and Asst. Scoutmaster Leader Training Fri., May 4 - Sun, May 6, 2012

Lake Minnetonka District Announces

Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmaster Leader Training - IN JUST ONE WEEKEND!!!

Lake Minnetonka is hosting another “Express Training Weekend” on May 4-6, 2012. Our courses fill up quickly, so please sign up early and don't miss this excellent training opportunity. This course is also a fantastic introduction for parents or other adults in the Troop that are interested in learning more about Boy Scouts and how Troops function.

Participants in our “Express Training Weekend” complete the following courses

- ◆ “Scoutmaster / Asst. Scoutmaster Leader Specific Training” and
- ◆ “Introduction to Outdoor Leader Skills Training”

Spend the weekend camping as members of “Troop 2012”

Where: At beautiful Camp Tanadoona in Excelsior

When: Arrive Friday evening May 4 and Leave Sunday afternoon May 6, 2012.

What: All participants review the outdoor skills required to earn First Class rank (Camping, Cooking, First Aid, and more!) while also learning leadership and practicing teamwork within their assigned patrols.

Pre-work:

In order to complete all the training requirements and be considered fully trained, there will be some pre-work required. Participants will be contacted prior to the course with requirements. Pre-work typically involves reading and review of training materials and completion of basic training (This is Scouting and Youth Protection). Participants will be asked to bring certificates to the training (or email them prior to the training to Clarice.Hagen@LakeMinnetonkaDistrict.org).

Supplies:

Participants are expected to supply their own tents, personal camping items, and shared patrol camping equipment. Every effort will be made to help participants connect with each other prior to the event. Food is provided for the weekend, patrols will cook several meals together.

Cost:

$50 per participant. The cost covers; materials, facility fees and meals for the weekend.

Contact:

Daron.Meyer@LakeMinnetonkaDistrict.org with any questions about this fantastic course!
